

Higher Quality
Better Service!

EXAM SELL

Certified IT practice exam authority

Accurate study guides, High passing rate!

Exam Sell provides update free of charge in one year!

Exam : Cybersecurity Audit Certificate

Title : ISACA Cybersecurity Audit
Certificate Exam

Version : DEMO

1. The second line of defense in cybersecurity includes:
- A. conducting organization-wide control self-assessments.
 - B. risk management monitoring, and measurement of controls.
 - C. separate reporting to the audit committee within the organization.
 - D. performing attack and breach penetration testing.

Answer: B

2. Within the NIST core cybersecurity framework, which function is associated with using organizational understanding to minimize risk to systems, assets, and data?

- A. Detect
- B. Identify
- C. Recover
- D. Respond

Answer: B

3. The "recover" function of the NISF cybersecurity framework is concerned with:

- A. planning for resilience and timely repair of compromised capacities and service.
- B. identifying critical data to be recovered in case of a security incident.
- C. taking appropriate action to contain and eradicate a security incident.
- D. allocating costs incurred as part of the implementation of cybersecurity measures.

Answer: A

4. Availability can be protected through the use of:

- A. user awareness training and related end-user training.
- B. access controls, permissions, and encryption.
- C. logging, digital signatures, and write protection.
- D. redundancy, backups, and business continuity management

Answer: D

5. Which of the following would provide the BEST basis for allocating proportional protection activities when comprehensive classification is not feasible?

- A. Single classification level allocation
- B. Business process re-engineering
- C. Business dependency assessment
- D. Comprehensive cyber insurance procurement

Answer: C